Battle of Chamkaur - Guru Gobind Singh Ji

Sri Guru Gobind Singh Ji was getting ready to enter the battle of Chamkaur. However, the Sikhs didn't want Guru Ji to enter the battle as they needed Guru Ji for help. Guru Gobind Singh Ji created the Panj Pyareh and Khalsa in 1699. Guru Ji said wherever the Panj Pyareh are Guru Ji will also be there and whatever the Panj Pyareh say the Sikhs have to follow.

The Panj Pyareh requested Guru Ji to leave the battle of Chamkaur and go to a safe place. Guru Ji followed the request of the Panj Pyareh.

Guru Gobind Singh Ji gave a Sikh called Sangat Singh their Royal Robe (Bana) and Dastaar. Guru Ji didn't leave quietly. They told the evil soldiers that they were leaving and to catch them. However, the soldiers couldn't see Guru Ji!
