

Chaar Sahibzaade Leaving Anandpur Sahib

The evil emperor Wazir Khan had sent thousands of soldiers to attack the Sikhs in Anandpur Sahib.

One day the emperor promised Sri Guru Gobind Singh Ji and all the Sikhs that if they would leave Anandpur Sahib they would not be attacked. It was a cold, stormy night and Guru Gobind Singh Ji, their family and all the Sikhs left Anandpur Sahib.

As soon as they reached a river called Sirsa the emperor broke his promise and attacked the Sikhs.

The Sikhs started crossing the stormy river however, Guru Ji's family became separated and they ended up going in different directions.
